Terry Goddard to Receive Award from CASS

(Phoenix, Ariz. – March 2, 2007) Attorney General Terry Goddard will receive the 2007 Dream Catcher Award from Central Arizona Shelter Services (CASS) at its annual gala on Saturday, March 3, at the Scottsdale Resort & Conference Center.

Goddard is being honored for his role in starting CASS 22 years ago. His leadership while mayor of Phoenix launched the CASS organization, which has provided 3.5 million nights of shelter and support services to more than 145,000 homeless men, women and children. Also being recognized during this event is Bryan Murphy, a member of the first CASS Board of Directors.

The Dream Catcher Award is presented to men and women who have shown outstanding vision, inspiration and leadership in the fight to end homelessness.
